(2) Intelligence Orientation #14 ended on Friday, 11 October. All instructors agree that the student body was one of the most responsive of the last several months.

(3) [redacted] visitors from IAC Agencies attended the Intelligence Products Exhibit on Thursday, 10 October, in the R & S Auditorium. A complete revision of the floor plan made the Exhibit more attractive and the visitors more manageable.

(4) The scheduling of the CIA Support Exhibit on Wednesday afternoon and the Intelligence Products Exhibit on Thursday morning of the second week was found far more satisfactory than the previous arrangement under which both were presented on the same day.

(5) [redacted] conferred with [redacted] OBI, and [redacted] C/VAS/TR, on 14 October, concerning the development of a new OBI Exhibit. This will be followed by other discussions as ideas for the exhibit become more concrete.

D. Intelligence Production

(1) [redacted] began participation in the instruction of the Intelligence Techniques course last week.

(2) Instructional Techniques #28, taught by [redacted] was concluded on 11 October. [redacted] students completed this course.

E. Operations Support

(1) At the request of the Operations Support Faculty, Mr. [redacted] Chief, FP, WE Division, suggested a case for use in Operations Support. The case, which has been prepared as an Operational Aid, is a very successful operation conducted [redacted] The OA is presently being studied to determine its suitability. The search for case material is being coordinated with [redacted]

(2) [redacted] is working in a liaison capacity between OTR and Logistics in the preparation of a script and pre-filming planning for the movie on Logistics which OTR plans to produce in the near future.

(3) [redacted] presented the Personnel Support material to Intelligence Orientation. Subsequently, he discussed the scope and content of this lecture with [redacted] Executive Officer, Office of Personnel, who attended the presentation. Increased Personnel coverage is being considered and more emphasis may be placed on Career Staff coverage.
